

NEWS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NO GUARANTEES

Women Artists connected by persistence, practice and creative necessity.
curated by Robyn E Maas

Opening: Saturday, April 18, 6-8pm

Closing: Friday, May 29, 6-8pm

The Trumbull Art Gallery is excited to announce its spring opening in the galleries with the exhibition,

NO GUARANTEES, an exhibition of 19 women artists working and living in the Mahoning Valley. NO GUARANTEES will be on display April 18, through May 19, with an opening reception, Saturday, April 18 from 6-8pm. This exhibition is free and open to the public.

NO GUARANTEES centers on practice, persistence, and creative necessity. The exhibition brings together artists ranging from emerging to long-established, academically trained to self-taught. What connects them is not career outcome, visibility, or certainty but a sustained commitment to their work.

The exhibition includes a wide range of media, including painting, photography, printmaking, drawing, mixed media, ceramics, fiber, and quilting. Featured artists include: Sue Anzellotti, Mary Lou Alexander, Dee Banks, Steph Blair, Dragana Crnjak, Kristina Danklef, DeJiva, Autumn Joi Ellis, Tara Flynn, Carol Gallo, Jenna Hudock, Adrien Lucas, Julie Martin, Missy McCormick, Jacki Mountan, Susan Russo, Tracy Segreti, Leah Sydney and Summer Zickefoose.

Curated by independent curator Robyn Maas, this exhibition continues her ongoing work with the gallery since 2024. Past exhibitions at TAG include: ARCS/ANGLES/SOUND, MAKE THINGS STICK and THIS IS NOT NOSTALGIA.
